

Center for Domestic Preparedness

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY
CENTER FOR DOMESTIC PREPAREDNESS

FEMA

Our Mission

---

‘Training the Best for the Worst’

FEMA

Who We Train

Responders in 17 Disciplines

- Emergency Management
- Emergency Medical Services
- Fire Service
- Governmental Administrative
- Hazardous Materials
- Healthcare
- Law Enforcement
- Public Health
- Public Safety Communications
- Public Works
- Agriculture
- Education
- Citizen/Community Volunteer
- Information Technology
- Security and Safety
- Search and Rescue
- Transportation

FEMA

Resident Training

Fully Funded to include:

- Roundtrip transportation
- Lodging/Dining facilities at no cost
- Training
- CANNOT fund salary/backfill

FEMA

Annual Tribal Nations Training Week

---

Typically, March/April annually

- March 11 – 18, 2023 8th Annual Tribal Nations Training Week
- Saturday to Saturday to allow time for networking
- Feast
- Evening Lecture Series events for tribes
- Focus Group to plan what courses will be included
- Curriculum from training partners included

FEMA

COBRA Training Facility

---

The only training site in the nation where civilian responders train with hazardous biological materials and toxic chemical agents.

*COBRA is an acronym for Chemical, Ordnance, Biological and Radiological

FEMA

Noble Training Facility

The nation’s only hospital training facility dedicated solely to preparing healthcare communities for mass casualty events related to terrorist acts or natural disasters.

FEMA

Advanced Responder Training Complex

---

Multi-use facility that includes a mock industrial park, subway station and simulated street scene with businesses, offices and warehouses.

FEMA

Integrated Capstone Events

---

Comprehensive exercises patterned after real-world events.
Typically involve students from multiple courses and disciplines.
~ 25 annually

FEMA

Online Training

---

~ 60 online training offerings

(Distance learning, virtual instructor-led courses, and informational videos and podcasts)

FEMA

Mobile Training

Submit request:

- Negotiate dates (typically 6-8 month wait)
- Logistics resources may be shared
- Must meet minimum enrollment

FEMA

CDP Resident Training Coordinator

---

David Hall

866-213-9546

David.Hall@fema.dhs.gov

FEMA

FEMIA

