School teacher

Houston Independent School District, Disaster Survivor

Angela Wigglesworth is a fifth-grade teacher in the Houston Independent School District. Angela has an undergraduate degree in Elementary Education from Texas A&M University and a master's degree in Multicultural Urban Special Education from the University of St. Thomas. Angela is also the Lead Consultant for Cobble & Stone Consulting, a firm that specializes in maximizing independent living opportunities for people with disabilities.

Angela is the founder of the Ms. Wheelchair Texas Foundation, was a sixteen-year member for the National Task Force on Public Awareness through the Muscular Dystrophy Association and sits on the Advisory Board of the Camp for All Foundation.

Angela and her husband, Justin, are avid travelers, SEC football aficionados, and Tex-Mex restaurant enthusiasts. Angela enjoys speaking about living with Spinal Muscular Atrophy Type II and sharing John Wooden's philosophy that, "Things turn out best for those who make the best of the way things turn out."
