

Clayton R. Christopher Memorial Award 2022

The Clayton R. Christopher Memorial Award recognizes an emergency management director/coordinator at the local (city, county, or tribal) level of government for outstanding contributions and commitment to a local emergency management program(s).

How the Award Originated

In commemoration of Clayton R. Christopher, Vice President, Region III, U.S. Civil Defense Council (Jan. 1, 1975-Oct. 29, 1976), Region III of the U.S. Civil Defense Council created an annual award titled the "Clayton R. Christopher Memorial Award." The original Region III is now IAEM-USA Region 4 of the IAEM-USA Council. The name of the award has been amended to describe the award to include all local emergency managers.

Who was Clayton R. Christopher?

Clayton R. Christopher served as Director of Clayton County, Georgia, Civil Defense from June 1962 until his death on Oct. 29, 1976, when he died in an airplane crash on his way to Thomasville, Georgia, to get final approval on plans for an addition to the county civil defense center from authorities in the Civil Defense Region Headquarters. He was Clayton County's first Civil Defense Director and was instrumental in making emergency management in Clayton County what it is today. He reorganized and modernized the system. He also served as President of the U.S. Civil Defense Council Region III (now IAEM-USA Region 4).

IAEM-USA presents this award annually in honor of Clayton R. Christopher for his unselfish dedication. His principles of integrity and leadership have served as a guiding force to the institution of emergency management and formed a strong foundation for its future.
