

Kevin Reilly

Consultant/Instructor, Guardian Consulting Specialists LLC.

Intentional Mass Casualty Incidents: Incident Management & Triage

This interactive, multimedia presentation will be delivered by lecture, ppt, and video. It will cover the evolution of multi-discipline, best practices covering the full continuum of MCI response - from crisis site to ED, to the operating room. The lecture will include several notable, real-life case studies that provided crucial lessons learned from which these multi-discipline best practices derive. ICS scene management, various triage methods, and the ED interface will be points of emphasis. Audience participation will be encouraged, and a Q&A session will close out the presentation.

Speaker Biography

Kevin Reilly currently is self-employed as a consultant and contract instructor for multiple emergency management training organizations. Kevin specializes in active shooter response training. Previously employed as an emergency manager with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and Stony Brook University Hospital, he also retired as a Colonel in the U.S. Airforce where he served as an Operations Group Commander, search and rescue instructor pilot, and military liaison officer to FEMA. Kevin has over ten years of experience as a volunteer firefighter and EMT-B (paid and volunteer). He's a FEMA-certified ICS Instructor, Master Exercise Practitioner, NAEMT Instructor, and Certified Healthcare Emergency Professional.