

IAEM-USA

K-12 Education Caucus

Caucus Purpose	Pertinent Information	Caucus Objectives
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Collaborate across sectors to address emerging issues specific to K-12 school districts. Proactive role in preparing for, responding to, recovering from, and mitigating against all threats and hazards. Whole community approach in building comprehensive emergency management programs. Foster school (and community) resilience. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Established January 2021 Over 86% membership growth this year School Emergency Management Practitioners All IAEM members invited For more information scan the QR code: 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Expand caucus membership through caucus functions designed to drive awareness of the benefits of IAEM membership and caucus participation. Development of caucus working groups focused on emerging threats and hazards common to K-12 institutions and those hazards unique to each FEMA region. Information sharing and collaboration regarding industry integration of the latest emergency management tools and technologies, including Artificial Intelligence, in-depth data analysis and facility standardization techniques. Sharing of best practices related to each of phase of emergency management, as applied within the K-12 environment.
Caucus Leadership	Meeting Information	Caucus Projects
Scott Hudson (TX), Chair Jon Bodie, (TX), Vice Chair Dean Herbst (TX), Secretary Contact Us: K-12education@iaem.com	Monthly meetings are held on the last Wednesday of each month at 1:30 p.m. EST. No meetings held in July or December.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> School Based Emergency Management Program Minimum Standards