Applicant Process

Individuals interested in serving on the Certification Commission should submit the following information in one PDF to Travis Cryan (Travis@iaem.com), by June 1, 2024.

1. Applicant Form
2. Letter of intent expressing desire to serve as a commissioner, as well as willingness to devote the necessary time to participate in online reviews and commission meetings. [Maximum of one page].
3. Current Resume
4. One letter of reference from current supervisor to verify and support Commissioner criteria, as well as to show support for the required time commitment.
5. One letter of reference from a current CEM* to illustrate competencies as an emergency manager and commitment to the IAEM Certification Program.

Additional letters of support may be submitted to help highlight candidate's attributes.

NOTE: If the candidate's supervisor is also a CEM, one letter is required as long as the reference is able to address both bullet points.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Upon receipt, candidates will receive confirmation that information was received by IAEM HQ. Candidates will be notified of the results this fall.

Commissioner Commitment

- Be able to devote approximately 30 hours per review month (180 hours yearly) to perform online reviews of certification applications.
- Every odd month, commissioners are expected to review, on average, 12 to 20 applications within a 30-day window.
- Attend one or two in-person meeting(s) of the Certification Commission per year. IAEM is prepared to cover the travel costs for the in-person meeting(s).
- Participate in two-hour conference calls every other month to discuss policy and procedure changes.
- Occasionally, commissioners may be asked to serve on a short-term ad-hoc working group related to a topic of discussion on the Certification Commission.
- Be responsive via email and phone.
