

Volunteer Emergency Manager of the Year Award 2025

The Volunteer Emergency Manager of the Year Award recognizes an individual who served as an active volunteer in the field of emergency management for their exceptional emergency management services and contributions to the community throughout the prior year.

Eligibility

- The individual is an active volunteer (non-paid) with a government or voluntary organization recognized by IAEM and/or FEMA as an emergency management organization (MOU, other acknowledgements) and/or the organization is listed as a national member on the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NVOAD) website or state/territory equivalent.
- The nominee should have contributed to work in one or more of a broad range of emergency management phases (preparedness, prevention, mitigation, response, and recovery).
- Nominee's volunteer activities must be unpaid and cannot include court-ordered community service. Nominees who receive a nominal stipend for their service (such as in connection with a national service program) are eligible. Reimbursement of expenses does not disqualify a nominee.
- The nominee must have volunteered services for a substantial time in the preceding calendar year. A nominee is disqualified if they changed to or from paid employment for their services (temporary, short-term, or permanent) any time during the year for any length of time.
- Self-nominations are not accepted for this award.
- Nominee has not received an award from IAEM in the previous year for any award category.
- The recipient does not need to attend the IAEM Annual Conference to be selected although they are strongly encouraged to participate in the conference. The IAEM Awards Committee or judges are not informed about conference registration and do not consider it in decision-making.

Service	Describe significant contributions to serving as a volunteer; articulate why the nominee is award-worthy. Examples include providing disaster relief; conducting or organizing disaster exercises; conducting outreach and education to promote disaster preparedness; writing disaster response, recovery, or other plans incorporated by the voluntary organization or a sponsoring government agency.	50%
Impact	Explain the significant impact the nominee provided to the sponsoring organization and/or people in communities served.	30%
Spectrum of Service	Illustrate the nominee's voluntary contributions to one or more phases of emergency management (preparedness, prevention, mitigation, response, and recovery). The broader range of contributions in the field, the better.	10%

Judges will provide a recommendation for selection of one recipient of this award to the IAEM-USA Awards and Recognition Committee whose decisions are final. Any questions can be referred to the Awards and Recognition Committee Chair.

Announcement of Award Results

Once the USA Awards and Recognition Committee confirms the award recipient, IAEM Headquarters will notify the recipient, the nominator, and the recipient's IAEM Region President. Additionally, nominators of entries not selected will be notified.
