

FAITH BASED CAUCUS

- Emergency Management and Faith Communities to Enhance Preparedness, Response and Recovery Efforts
- IAEM Committees and Caucus to Advocate for Faith Based Engagement
- FEMA Office of Faith Based and Neighborhood Partnerships and Voluntary Organizations Active In Disaster to Ensure Unified Efforts and Shared Best Practices

- Developing Partnerships with Faith Based organizations
- Safety and Security for Houses of Worship

- To Learn More or to Become Part of the Faith Based Caucus please email FaithBased@iaem.com

E – ENGAGE – IAEM members to share best practices, lessons learned and opportunities to enhance the emergency management profession through Faith Based engagement

Q – QUANTIFY – The ability of IAEM members to build more resilient communities through Faith Based engagement

U – UNDERSTAND – Barriers IAEM members may have and what resources could help break down those barriers

I – INCLUDE – Advocate for the inclusion of Faith Based Organizations in local and state emergency management programs and associations

P – PARTNER – Develop partnerships between IAEM Members and Faith Based Organizations to enhance community capacities

Advocate for the increased recognition and engagement of Faith-Based Organizations within IAEM-USA and the emergency management community, to build stronger and more resilient communities