

Native American communities are among the most vulnerable to natural disasters and emergencies due to their unique cultural and historical circumstances.

Goal

- Increase Caucus membership and community outreach

Chair: Angie Ramos, PEM
Vice Chair: Lisa Figueroa, CEM
Board Liaison: Valerie Lucus-McEwen, CEM, CBCP
President, IAEM-USA Region 8
Board Liaison: John Osborne

Facilitate emergency services and program awareness in Indian Country within a framework of tribal self-determination.

Source: Composite image from FEMA's National Tribal Strategy (August 2022)

Native American emergency management and relief efforts face unique challenges due to historical and systemic factors, as well as limited resources and staffing.

Accomplishments

- Membership continues to increase
- 2024 Annual Conference Speaker Presentation

Next Meeting

- Annual conference and quarterly, on December 20th

TRIBAL AFFAIRS CAUCUS

Caucus Leadership

- Caucus Chair: Angie Ramos
- Caucus Vice Chair: Lisa Figueroa (CEM)
- Board Liaison: John Osborn

Accomplishments

- XXX
- XXX
- XX

Source: FEMA's National Tribal Strategy (August 2022)

Objective

Facilitate emergency services and program awareness in Indian Country within a framework of tribal self-determination.

Goals

- XXX:
- XXX:
- XXXX:

Meeting Info

- XXXXX:
- XXXX:
- XXXX:

