

Emergency Management has solutions now for pediatric feeding during disasters.

WHAT'S DONE

- Open-Source Advocacy Article
- Free e-Book Chapter
- Web pitches to FL, NC, PA, US DoD and more
- Sessions at the IAEM's 2024 early edition and ERAU EM/HS 2025 pracademic virtual webinar series
- Update to National Mass Care Strategy website
- Change to FEMA's PAPPG for Category B - Emergency Protective Measures Support

WHAT'S NEXT

- Seminario web listo en Español
- Seeking new jurisdictions to pitch, including Sovereign Tribal Nations
- Possible update to FEMA's CUSI
- Continued pro bono SLTT support
- Continued pro bono NGO support, including the American Red Cross

- All training and exercise material is free - available online for everyone
- We welcome feedback, and can also do overview webinars for free, as well
- And we encourage participation from people of all genders, faiths, and cultural backgrounds

Inquiries can be directed to Mike at:
info@bartondunant.com

DISPLACED HURRICANE KATRINA STORM SURVIVORS LOOK AT A LIMITED SELECTION OF DONATED
INFANT FOOD ITEMS INSIDE THE HOUSTON ASTRODOME SHELTER (TEXAS), SEPTEMBER 2, 2005
(SOURCE: ED EDAHL/FEMA, PUBLIC DOMAIN, VIA WIKIMEDIA COMMONS).

Barton
Dunant

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT
TRAINING & CONSULTING