The newly revised IAEM Canada Bylaws can be found online at www.iaem.com/canada. The Governance Committee works closely with the Membership Committee when new Regions become Board Members, for example the new Atlantic Region. The IAEM Canada Governance Committee meets monthly to work on Bylaws, Policies & Procedures, and Terms of Reference for workgroups. IAEM Canada members are informed of national issues and work items through the IAEM Canada Communique.
In 2017-2018, the Communications and Marketing Committee has been improving the methods to which IAEM Canada delivers its content to its Membership. The IAEM Website (www.iaem.com) features home pages for each IAEM Council and displays the extent of IAEM activities, advocacy, and influence. Online resources continue to grow. The IAEM Canada Conference Microsite (www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=events/Canada2018Conference) continues to provide one portal for all IAEM Canada conference information.

The IAEM presence on social media includes active, professional use of Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Twitter, and discussion boards. Traffic has drastically increased on our LinkedIn and Twitter Platforms this year from across the globe.

The IAEM Communique is a monthly email newsletter and was launched September 2017. It is unique to Canada - only IAEM members and features updates, trends, and news on the emergency management profession in Canada. It also highlights professional development, conference listings and networking opportunities in various communities across Canada and abroad. We have delivered seven issues to date.

The IAEM Dispatch (www.iaemdispatch.com) continues as IAEM’s, international weekly e-newsletter sent to IAEM members and other interested subscribers, now totaling almost 15,000 EM professionals across the globe.

The IAEM Bulletin is a monthly, international IAEM members-only newsletter (www.iaem.com/Bulletin) and online publication including feature articles covering issues of a wide scope to reflect the diversity of IAEM membership and began its 35th year of publication in 2018.

Media Relations – IAEM Canada participated in media relations activities Dec 2017 in awarding The City of Ottawa the IAEM Presidential Citation and supported the Alberta Minister of Municipal Affairs tabling new Emergency Management Amendments in April 2018.

The Communications and Marketing Committee has been improving the methods to which IAEM Canada delivers its content to its Membership. The IAEM Website (www.iaem.com) features home pages for each IAEM Council and displays the extent of IAEM activities, advocacy, and influence. Online resources continue to grow. The IAEM Canada Conference Microsite (www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=events/Canada2018Conference) continues to provide one portal for all IAEM Canada conference information.

The IAEM presence on social media includes active, professional use of Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Twitter, and discussion boards. Traffic has drastically increased on our LinkedIn and Twitter Platforms this year from across the globe.

The IAEM Communique is a monthly email newsletter and was launched September 2017. It is unique to Canada - only IAEM members and features updates, trends, and news on the emergency management profession in Canada. It also highlights professional development, conference listings and networking opportunities in various communities across Canada and abroad. We have delivered seven issues to date.

The IAEM Dispatch (www.iaemdispatch.com) continues as IAEM’s, international weekly e-newsletter sent to IAEM members and other interested subscribers, now totaling almost 15,000 EM professionals across the globe.

The IAEM Bulletin is a monthly, international IAEM members-only newsletter (www.iaem.com/Bulletin) and online publication including feature articles covering issues of a wide scope to reflect the diversity of IAEM membership and began its 35th year of publication in 2018.

Media Relations – IAEM Canada participated in media relations activities Dec 2017 in awarding The City of Ottawa the IAEM Presidential Citation and supported the Alberta Minister of Municipal Affairs tabling new Emergency Management Amendments in April 2018.

The Communications and Marketing Committee has been improving the methods to which IAEM Canada delivers its content to its Membership. The IAEM Website (www.iaem.com) features home pages for each IAEM Council and displays the extent of IAEM activities, advocacy, and influence. Online resources continue to grow. The IAEM Canada Conference Microsite (www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=events/Canada2018Conference) continues to provide one portal for all IAEM Canada conference information.

The IAEM presence on social media includes active, professional use of Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Twitter, and discussion boards. Traffic has drastically increased on our LinkedIn and Twitter Platforms this year from across the globe.

The IAEM Communique is a monthly email newsletter and was launched September 2017. It is unique to Canada - only IAEM members and features updates, trends, and news on the emergency management profession in Canada. It also highlights professional development, conference listings and networking opportunities in various communities across Canada and abroad. We have delivered seven issues to date.

The IAEM Dispatch (www.iaemdispatch.com) continues as IAEM’s, international weekly e-newsletter sent to IAEM members and other interested subscribers, now totaling almost 15,000 EM professionals across the globe.

The IAEM Bulletin is a monthly, international IAEM members-only newsletter (www.iaem.com/Bulletin) and online publication including feature articles covering issues of a wide scope to reflect the diversity of IAEM membership and began its 35th year of publication in 2018.

Media Relations – IAEM Canada participated in media relations activities Dec 2017 in awarding The City of Ottawa the IAEM Presidential Citation and supported the Alberta Minister of Municipal Affairs tabling new Emergency Management Amendments in April 2018.

The Communications and Marketing Committee has been improving the methods to which IAEM Canada delivers its content to its Membership. The IAEM Website (www.iaem.com) features home pages for each IAEM Council and displays the extent of IAEM activities, advocacy, and influence. Online resources continue to grow. The IAEM Canada Conference Microsite (www.iaem.com/page.cfm?p=events/Canada2018Conference) continues to provide one portal for all IAEM Canada conference information.

The IAEM presence on social media includes active, professional use of Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, Twitter, and discussion boards. Traffic has drastically increased on our LinkedIn and Twitter Platforms this year from across the globe.

The IAEM Communique is a monthly email newsletter and was launched September 2017. It is unique to Canada - only IAEM members and features updates, trends, and news on the emergency management profession in Canada. It also highlights professional development, conference listings and networking opportunities in various communities across Canada and abroad. We have delivered seven issues to date.

The IAEM Dispatch (www.iaemdispatch.com) continues as IAEM’s, international weekly e-newsletter sent to IAEM members and other interested subscribers, now totaling almost 15,000 EM professionals across the globe.

The IAEM Bulletin is a monthly, international IAEM members-only newsletter (www.iaem.com/Bulletin) and online publication including feature articles covering issues of a wide scope to reflect the diversity of IAEM membership and began its 35th year of publication in 2018.

Media Relations – IAEM Canada participated in media relations activities Dec 2017 in awarding The City of Ottawa the IAEM Presidential Citation and supported the Alberta Minister of Municipal Affairs tabling new Emergency Management Amendments in April 2018.

In 2017 there were 177 new AEM or CEM designations awarded globally, 11 of which were to Canadians.