

Ramon Zulueta is a Risk Manager with the TELUS Corporate Business Continuity Office. His primary portfolio revolves around severe weather surveillance and preparedness of TELUS operations both in Canada and internationally. Ramon also manages the TELUS Business Continuity Program.

Prior to TELUS, Ramon was involved in emergency preparedness and planning in the public sector for both the Calgary Emergency Management Agency (CEMA) and the City of Vaughan in Ontario.

A pioneer in the Bachelors of Disaster and Emergency Management (BADEM) program at York University in Toronto, he graduated with Specialized Honours.