

Biography Scott Holland

During the 2013 Southern Alberta Flood disaster, Scott Holland was the provincial Manager of Planning and Preparedness for Alberta Health Services EMS. Scott is now the Executive Director of Rural Health in the Calgary Zone, overseeing 8 Acute care

Hospitals & 6 Integrated Long Term Care centers serving over 200,000 residents of rural communities. Scott's professional background is in Emergency Medical Services as a Paramedic, and most recently, as Director of EMS Clinical Operations in Calgary. Scott is a Certified Emergency Manager holds and a Masters of Arts in Leadership from Royal Roads University.

Scott Holland MAL (H), EMT-P, CEM
President – IAEM Canada - Alberta region